The Garden State Numismatic Association's Annual Convention continues to be THE EVENT For numismatists who also collect or accumulate tokens, medals, and other forms of exonumia. This year, the GSNA convention will be held during the period of June 1st to June 3rd. Specific information is available inside this issue. Also, the New Jersey Token and Medal Show is being held in conjunction with GSNA....and for all our new members, it would be worth their while to drop in and chat with Paul Cunningham...see the news release inside this issue.

We are having our annual meeting at 11:00 AM on Saturday, June 3rd, 2000, in a designated room that will be posted at the GSNA registration desk. I hope to see you all there, and I urge you to bring along your favorite NJ exonumia item to share with your fellow members. I plan to bring some items that were found with a metal detector on the Atlantic City beach...and hope that a club member can help me identify them.

SEE YOU AT THE MEETING !!!!!!

NEW FEATURE ADDED TO JERSEYana

Have you ever come across exonumia that you could not identify? As some of you know, my primary hobby is metal detecting, and I am constantly "rescuing from mother earth" coins, tokens, medals, and other items that I would like to identify. My usual solution is to bring the item to our monthly meeting, where one [or a group] of the learned club elders will examine the item, pontificate for some time, and then announce their finding. Decisions may vary, of course, and all the discussion leads to some very interesting information, which is shared by all the club members.

We do not have the luxury of a monthly meeting, but I would like to develop some way of "tapping into" the vast wealth of knowledge that exists among us....and as a first step, have decided to introduce a new feature, or forum, to explore, and hopefully identify, interesting items of New Jersey exonumia. The title will simply be WHAT'S THIS ???, and I'll take the first shot; but I really need some help here for future issues and that's where you come in. Please share with your fellow club members some of your interesting finds!!! You can submit items that you have already identified, along with some backround information, and I will print it. You can submit items that you cannot identify...and we'll see what we can do to establish its identity.

In order for this idea to succeed, I need your participation. If you are planning to attend our annual meeting, why not bring along some of your favorite / unidentified exonumia for us to look at and discuss ???? Here's our first try {and I don't know what they are}:

WHAT'S THIS ???

A real active metal detectorist passed away last year, and I was fortunate to be able to acquire some of his findings. Jim was an avid hunter who lived in Ventnor, and did the Atlantic City beach on almost a daily basis. I haven't gotten to the bottom of his cigar box filing cabinet yet; but these little badges are driving me crazy because I am not sure what they represent. Each badge has the year 1928, the initials A.R.A. along with either R.S.M.A., M.T. , or M.M. M.C.B.

Let's talk about these guys at our Annual Meeting !!!!

The New Jersey Token and Medal Show

The New Jersey Token and Medal Show will be held, in conjunction with the Garden State Numismatic Association, at the Marriott Hotel and Convention Center, Davidson Ave., Exit 10 off Rt. 287, in Somerset, NJ, June 1-3, 2000.The hours are 1PM-7PM on the 1st, 10AM to 7PM on the 2nd and 10AM-5PM on the 3rd. The NJTMS, in one form or another, has been held in the Philadelphia area continuously for over 30 years; this year's edition will be a popular show which will draw up to 12 collectibles dealers from the immediate area and from surrounding states, and other far-flung locations such as Florida, New York, Illinois, Ohio and Michigan. Among the various areas of collectibles represented are casino gaming chips and memorabilia, tokens and medals, coins and paper Americana of every type, such as Civil War artifacts, early advertising signs and political items, ephemera, telephone cards: every imaginable "small" collectible antique. You are urged to bring your duplicates to trade or sell to our dealers!

Presidential Coin and Antique Company will again present an exceptional auction of tokens and medals, at 2PM, Saturday, June 3. Call 703-354-5454 for further information regarding the auction.
